VETS READY FOR MEMORIAL DAY

Impressive Program to Mark Event at Portage Lake

Everything is in readiness for the observance of Memorial day tomorrow and in the event of favorable weather, the most enthusiastic observance held for several years will be held. The parade, the largest ever held on Memorial day, will be composed of the following organizations: Spanish War Veterans, G. A. R., Hancock Naval reserves, Houghton Light Infantry, Hancock city council, Houghton village council and children of all schools at Houghton and Hancock.

A special meeting of the Spanish War Veterans was held last evening in the Houghton village hall when final arrangements were completed. At the exercises tomorrow afternoon at the monument in Houghton, honorary badges, admitting members of the G. A. R. into membership of the Spanish War veterans, will be given to the civil war survivors.

The parade will be formed in Hancock near the city hall. Spanish War Veterans of Hancock will lead the procession to Houghton and the G. A. R. will follow. The Naval reserves will follow the Civil War Veterans and members of the city council and school children carrying American flags will bring up the rear. Colonel W. H. Mason of Hancock who will act as grand marshal will lead the procession across the county bridge where it will meet the Houghton military organizations. The line of march will then be formed and the procession will proceed to East Houghton.

Superintendent J. A. Doolie of the Houghton public schools will deliver the Memorial day address. Several other prominent speakers will give short talks.

At the conclusion of the exercises the parade will re-assemble and march through the streets of Houghton. The military will accompany the Veterans to Hancock as an honorary bodyguard.

HANCOCK VS. LAKES.

Local Nine Will Play at Driving Park Tomorrow Afternoon.

The copper country high school baseball schedule will be completed tomorrow afternoon when the Lake Linden high school nine comes to this city to play the local team at the driving park. The game promises to be an interesting one as the loser will be awarded the cellar championship. Both teams have been playing good ball, but the Calumet and Houghton teams have been stronger and have had no difficulty in defeating them.

CHANGE HOUR OF MEETING.

Officers of the Hancock Congregational Sunday school have decided that during the summer months the regular session will be held at 9:30 in the morning instead of noon, as has been the custom for the past few years. The session will begin at 9:30 and continue until 10:30 o'clock. At the conclusion of the Sunday school meeting the regular morning service will be held in the church.

MRS. WILLIAMS' LONG SICKNESS

Yields To Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Elkhart, Ind.—"I suffered for fourteen years from organic inflammation, female weakness, pain and irregularities. The pains in my sides were increased by walking or standing on my feet and I had such awful bearing down feelings, was depressed in spirits and became thin and pale with dull, heavy eyes. I had six doctors from whom I received only temporary relief. I decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial and also the Sanative Wash. I have now used the remedies for four months and cannot express my thanks for what they have done for me.

"If these lines will be of any benefit you have my permission to publish them."—Mrs. SADIE WILLIAMS, 455 James Street, Elkhart, Indiana.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ills we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., seem to prove this fact.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

JAMES ACCEPTS INVITATION.

Hancock Man To Deliver Commencement Address at Mass City.

Senator W. Frank James of Hancock has received an invitation from Superintendent A. E. Kilmar of the Mass City high school to deliver the commencement address to the graduates from that school the evening of June 18. Senator James has decided to accept the invitation.

The Hancock senator has been called on frequently of late to deliver commencement addresses and other speeches of this kind and his ability as an orator is becoming well known. He will deliver the commencement address to the graduates of the Sponal college this evening and will leave later for Crystal Falls, where he will deliver the Memorial day address tomorrow.

COPPER COUNTRY CRICKET SEASON TO BEGIN JUNE 3

FOUR TEAMS TO CONSTITUTE LEAGUE—TO PLAY WEDNESDAY GAMES.

With four teams entered and the possibility of two additional eleven being organized, the Copper Country Cricket league will formally open its season Wednesday, when Painesdale will play at Quincy and Wolverine will meet Kearsarge on the latter's pitch. Thus far, these teams constitute the circuit. The probable additions are Mohawk and Calumet and in the event that enthusiasm is manifested in the early sessions, there is little doubt that these teams will bid for a berth. A new departure in this year's schedule is so arranged that contests may be played on Saturdays without interfering with the regular order.

The schedule of home games follows:

Painesdale—With Quincy on June 17; with Kearsarge July 1, and with Wolverine July 8. The date with Mohawk to be arranged.

Quincy—With Painesdale June 3; with Wolverine June 10, and with Kearsarge June 24. Date to be arranged with Mohawk.

Wolverine—With Kearsarge June 3; with Painesdale June 24 and with Quincy July 1. Mohawk game to be arranged.

Kearsarge—With Painesdale June 10; with Wolverine June 17 and with Quincy July 8. Mohawk game to be arranged.

HANCOCK COUNCIL MEETING ADJOURNED UNTIL MONDAY

ABSENCE OF CITY ATTORNEY NECESSITATES THIRD POSTPONEMENT.

The special meeting of the Hancock city council that was scheduled to be held this evening, has again been adjourned and will be held next Monday evening. The meeting will be one of the most important of the year and Mayor Ojala urges every member of the council to be present. At this time the annual appropriation will be determined. The meeting was to have been held last Tuesday evening but owing to a communication received from the state tax commission the session was adjourned until Friday night. The communication placed special stress on the assessing of property. The board of assessors has been busy for the past few days on the assessment rolls and it now believes the list is complete.

It was also deemed necessary that City Attorney Lawton be present at the session and as he has been in the east for some time it was decided to await his return. A message was received from Mr. Lawton this morning announcing that it would be impossible for him to arrive until Monday morning.

LAST VAUDEVILLE ACT.

Manager Ben Noonan of the Orpheum theater announces that patrons of the little playhouse will have their last opportunity to witness vaudeville Sunday evening. During the summer months the owners of the playhouse have decided to abolish the vaudeville acts and will present moving pictures entirely.

HANCOCK BREVITIES.

Thomas Curtis, the well known conductor for the Houghton County Traction company, his wife and daughter, Stella, left recently for an extended trip to Chicago, St. Louis and other cities. They will be gone from Hancock for about one month and will journey as far as Savannah, Ga.

John C. Congdon, accompanied by his daughter, Dora, left yesterday for Lansing to attend the Knights Templar convocation.

Hancock lodge, Knights of Pythias, entertained with a delightful card party in Kaut's hall last evening.

Mrs. E. A. Healy of Ironwood and daughter are visiting relatives in this city.

In accordance with the annual custom the bells of Hancock will toll for five minutes at noon tomorrow in observance of Memorial day.

Mistletoe lodge, Sons of St. George of Quincy, will meet this evening to elect officers.

A. C. Hugh of California is in Hancock on business.

Attorney O. N. Hilton of Denver, Colo., was in Hancock today, coming from L'Anse, where he has been act-

ROOSEVELT WILL BE OFF TOMORROW FOR SPAIN

WILL ATTEND WEDDING OF SON KERMIT—BACK BEFORE END OF JUNE.

New York, May 29.—Having stayed scarcely long enough to hang up his shooting-irons, put away his cameras and change his khaki outfit for a boiled shirt and spike-tailed coat, Colonel Roosevelt will be off again tomorrow—this time to Spain, to attend the wedding of his son. Only a week will have elapsed between the time of his arrival from South America and his departure for Europe. But during that week he had several long conferences with George W. Perkins, Gifford Pinchot and other Progressive party managers and it is a pretty safe bet that the Colonel now has a good line on the present situation with regard to national politics. He will be back home before the end of June, ready to jump into the fight. It is possible that he will make a country-wide tour to bolster up the Progressive cause before the fall elections. It is certain he will stump Pennsylvania in the hope of electing his friend Pinchot, who is opposing his bitter enemy, Boies Penrose, for the senate. To lose Pennsylvania, which he won so easily in the presidential election two years ago, would be a more blow to the Rooseveltian prospects.

Marc Klaw Has a Birthday.

Marc Klaw, of the firm of Klaw and Erlanger, had a birthday yesterday—his fifty-sixth—and was the recipient of many congratulations from his friends in the theatrical profession. For many years, Mr. Klaw has been a shining light in the galaxy of men who control the theatrical business in America. He has shone in spite of himself, for personally, he is one of the most modest of men. This in itself is enough to distinguish anyone connected with the theatrical profession, but more remarkable still is the fact that he did not begin his career as a theater usher. A big theatrical manager is always supposed to have started as an usher, just as the circus manager always begins his career as a seller of red lemonade. But Mr. Klaw in his younger days was a lawyer and was on the road to success in that profession when quite by accident he abandoned the law and went into the theatrical business.

Conan Doyle Likes Gotham.

Among the notable passengers who arrived on the Olympic this week were Sir Arthur and Lady Conan Doyle. It is the first visit that the famous creator of Sherlock Holmes has paid to America in twenty years and the first time that Lady Conan Doyle has ever been on this side of the Atlantic. Sir Arthur declared on landing that he was quite prepared to see some wonderful changes in New York since his last visit, but nevertheless he could not altogether conceal his surprise at the multitude of tall buildings, the new bridges spanning the East River, the subways, the tubes and other marvelous improvements that have marked the progress of the metropolis during the past two decades. Sir Arthur and Lady Conan Doyle plan to remain with friends in this city until next week, when they will go to Canada. Their ultimate destination is Jasper Park, at the foot of the Canadian Rockies. The trip will be made by way of the Great Lakes and thence to Winnipeg. It will be Sir Arthur's first trip through Canada and he is looking forward to it with keen pleasure.

Picturesque Character Gone.

Patrick Garley, who was found dead in his bed one morning recently, was next to the last survivor of the "Boodle Board of Aldermen" of thirty years ago, and long known as the most picturesque saloonkeeper on the Bowery. Garley came from Ireland as a boy, starting in life in the trucking business as a senior counsel for the Western Federation of Miners.

Incidentally, Lady Macabees, will entertain in Germania hall this evening with a dancing party. The funds derived from the entertainment will be donated to St. Joseph's hospital.

Students of the grades of the Hancock public schools entered in a declamation contest last evening. A large crowd attended.

ness in this city, and by the time he came of age he was already a power in Tammany politics. In the latter '80s he started in the saloon business on the lower East Side. His saloon became famous as the council room of the most powerful politicians of that section of the city. Garley was a man of great physical strength and much of his popularity was due to the way he handled his fists when those were weapons of political importance. He was keen-witted, too. When Roosevelt Conkling was conducting the investigation into the charges that the members of the "Boodle Board" had received $20,000 apiece for their votes in favor of a certain public franchise, Garley occupied the witness stand for more than three hours and came away with a reputation for the shrewdness with which he had fenced with the brilliant lawyer.

To Unveil Jefferson Statue.

It is hoped to have President Wilson come to this city next Monday to attend the unveiling of the statue of Thomas Jefferson, which has been erected in front of the School of Journalism of Columbia University. The statue is the gift of the late Joseph Pulitzer to the city. Mr. Pulitzer left $25,000, and later other gifts increased the amount to $28,000. The statue is the work of William Ordway Partridge. It shows Jefferson at 55 years of age, when he was president of the United States. The figure is 8 feet 6 inches high. The statue will face the heroic figure of Hamilton, in front of Hamilton Hall, and will look out over the athletic field of the university.

Garlie High in New York.

Garlie is selling in the New York market at the highest figures on record. The boost in the price is not due to the recent announcement from a medical authority that the odorless delicacy is a cock-sure preventative of tuberculosis, but is the result of the troubles in Mexico. The southern republic furnishes a large part of the garlic supply for the New York market. Recently the shipments from Mexico have been very small and the market has been bare of all kinds of garlic. The trade is uninformed whether any more shipments are on the way from Mexico, the general belief being that no more will come here this season. Importers are now looking forward to the entries of the new Italian garlic which are expected about the end of June. Long before that time the market here will be stripped of the product. When the Italian product does arrive, it is not likely to last long, as the demand will be unusually keen.
